

LAPPED BY LUXURY

The waterfront Yachting Club villas are the most spectacular yet at Elounda Beach

The pristine white “sails” along the waterfront are your first glimpse of Elounda Beach Hotel & Villas’ new ultra luxe—and ultra modern—Yachting Club villas. Designed with a maritime theme, from the sea they look like so many sailing boats at anchor. Their unique setting on the north-east coast of Crete is matched by outstanding high-tech amenities, personal butler service, fine dining, in-room home-theatre entertainment, pools and decks. And, depending on how long Yachting Club guests are staying (as long as possible, surely!), they may be eligible to travel by complimentary private jet.

Elounda Beach Hotels & Villas has long been one of Europe’s most sumptuous destination resorts. And all guests in the 250 rooms, suites and villas can enjoy its five exceptional restaurants and sporting facilities. The water sports centre offers sailing, water-skiing, windsurfing, fishing and jet-ski. On land, there’s badminton, tennis and trekking, personal trainers to refine your daily workout, not to mention the bridge lounge, shopping, sightseeing and cultural expeditions to explore Crete’s fabulous history, from the Minoans to Venetians.

If all that sounds a bit strenuous, head straight for the Elounda Beach Spa, an oasis dedicated to wellbeing and the renewal of body and spirit that offers a range of treatments using ESPA natural products and all carried out by the ESPA-trained therapists who can tailor-make programmes to individual needs.
